ANOTHER [illegible]

The Benton county contestants are ended. Both Houses [illegible] another election for Benton county has been held and the Democracy have [illegible] another triumphant victory [illegible] Democratic candidates polled [illegible] and [illegible] for the Republican candidates. There were several Republican gentlemen who [illegible] green enough to contend that the people of [illegible] that county [illegible] election last June [illegible] Messrs. Kelly and Dunn at that election received a majority of all the legal votes cast, that they were therefore entitled to fill the seats, and that the Legislature had no right to elect members for Benton, or any other county. Of course everybody laughed at such pretensions as these, and the arguments of these gentlemen fell without effect upon deaf ears. They were in the beautiful figure of Holy Writ, pearls cast before swine. Having a clear majority of votes, the power to [illegible] what they [illegible] why should the Democracy refuse to listen to the wails of their brethren [illegible] be admitted into the Democratic ark. Why should Black Republicans be allowed to occupy honorable seats here when those seats were wanted by Democrats? Gauged by the time honored usages of Democracy, the proposition was preposterous. The appeals of the Democratic stumpers were irresistible, and the electors came to the scratch in solid phalanx, and with a tread as firm as [illegible] was consistent with the number of times they had been down to Barcome's [illegible] phalanx [illegible] there was no Democrat in the House, and one in the Senate who believed th[illegible] [illegible] candidates were [illegible] the [illegible] that an election [illegible] the people was [illegible] an unconstitutional proceeding, and that one [illegible] for R[illegible] [illegible] Senator was [illegible] for one year. Mr. Lauder of Jackson county in the House voted against the majority report [illegible] against [illegible] Kelly and Dunn and against electing Calloway and Carlisle. W[illegible] Fay in the Senate believed that Witham was legally elected last June; that the evidence furnished by the majority and minority reports showed this; that the election of Strahan in place of Witham could not be justified by the testimony or the law, and he protested that he could not and would not allow his partisan feelings to overcome his sense of justice and fairness. But these protests went for nothing—the Democracy had determined upon [illegible] the candidates and thus as far as possible heal the [illegible] wounds [illegible] defeat received in the [illegible] In the Senate the returns showed thirteen votes for Strahan and only [illegible] for Witham, a clear majority of six. I learn [illegible] that Witham will not contest, as there was only [illegible] reported vote against him. Mo[illegible] Dougl[illegible] In a day or two I shall be able to furnish you some further particulars.

This morning Mr. Cochran mounted the [illegible] for the third time, and read that [illegible] journal for a full hour. The first time he came [illegible] of complaint was that it had said something wrong; the second time it had [illegible] in such a way as to make matters worse and had called somebody a very motley [illegible] the third time it had said nothing. Therefore and for all these repeated offenses, he desired he [illegible] transmitted to posterity through being [illegible] of the Senate Journal that he had [illegible] the Statesman to his Senatorial address. And he further gave notice in the hearing of all the world and the rest of mankind that he [illegible] that newspaper left any more at the house where he boarded. The Senate kindly allowed his declaration to go upon the Journal. Pending the discussion Mr. Hendershott, who had a very correct appreciation of the ludicrousness of the whole proceeding, offered a resolution containing a [illegible] warning to the editor of the [illegible] [illegible] from attacks upon members under the fearful penalty of swallowing to no purpose an indefinite amount of quinine [illegible] and hot whiskey. Having raised the laugh he evidently sought, he withdrew the resolution and the [illegible] went on.

A day or two since a couple of the solons were talking about matters and things in general and legislative proceedings in particular, when it was remarked by one of them that the House seemed to be in a savage mood in regard to Senate bills. Yes, replied the other, it is a slaughter House. There is much truth in this. A ready quite a number of measures originating in the Senate have been killed very dead in the House. The secret of it is that notwithstanding the very decided majority of Democrats in that body the minority through superior tact [illegible] has thus far run the machine a good part of the time.

This afternoon Mr. Patterson, State Printer, and Mr. O'Meara of the [illegible] met on the street, when a collision took place. As I hear the story, Mr. Patterson attacked Mr. O'Meara, the latter attempted to defend himself with his cane, Patterson struck O'Meara, and the two clinched, falling, Mr. O'Meara under. [illegible] son succeeded in getting O'Meara's cane out of his hands and began to strike him. At this juncture bystanders separated them. It is said that both of them then drew pistols, but they were not used. Neither of the parties were hurt much. The unpleasant affair grew out of an article in the [illegible] [illegible] which Patterson was severely handled.

Report of the Board of Pilot Commissioners

To the Honorable Legislative Assembly [illegible]

The Pilot Commissioners would respectfully represent that they are pleased to be able to state that no casualties have occurred on the Bar of the Columbia river during the last two years arising from the difficulties of navigation. That, as will appear from the statement herewith marked A, the increase of the amount of shipping arriving and departing and of the [illegible] has been a [illegible] [illegible] the consequent growth of the [illegible] of the State. The amount of tonnage for the two years [illegible] is estimated at two hundred and ninety-five thousand six hundred and ninety-four tons.

Since a report has been made by this Board [illegible] Commissioners and pilots of at day of August 1870, the pilot boat [illegible] retained upon the Bar of the Columbia river and has been in every respect furnished and equipped as required by law.

That on the first day of August last this Board received notice from the Contracting Commission appointed by the State to contract for a steam tug to be placed on the Columbia River Bar, that the same had contracted for as contemplated by law. We proceeded on board said tug [illegible] and went out over the Bar of the Columbia [illegible] thereof and found her in every respect qualified for such service.

That at a meeting of this Board held at their office in Astoria on the first day of August [illegible] the following named persons were licensed as pilots in connection with the tug A[illegible] Alfred Crosby, William B. Chaw and D. W. Wass [illegible] and at a subsequent meeting A. C. Farnsworth was licensed as a pilot.

That at their meeting on the first day of August William [illegible] was nominated and elected Secretary of the Board.

The Board would respectfully represent that the tug Astoria being, in the estimation of the members of the Board, in every respect qualified for the purpose designed by the State and for the security against accidents upon the Bar of the Columbia River, thereby encouraging and promoting the increasing commercial interests of the State, would recommend and suggest to the Legislature that some amendment ought to be made to the Pilot Laws providing for an annual [illegible] remedy for the collection of pilotage and half pilotage due the tug in the [illegible] of the State.

That the pilots recognized as such on the Columbia and Willamette Rivers as licensed from this Board are Philip Johnson, G. Reed, M. M. Gilman and H. A. Snow.

That during the last two years no complaints have been made of fault found with any pilot on the Columbia or Willamette Rivers for unskillfulness or negligence.

That the increase of arrivals and departures over the Columbia River Bar beyond former years would manifest an increase of confidence from abroad and show that the reputation of the Bar of the Columbia River as heretofore believed unfavorably dangerous was [illegible] erroneous.

The members of this Board would further respectfully suggest that an amendment be made to the Pilot Law providing that in case of a vessel taken [illegible] above the port of Astoria upon the waters of the Columbia and Willamette Rivers [illegible] such vessel shall not be subject to pilotage without a pilot is actually employed by the master of such vessel.

There is hereto attached a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the tug Astoria for the month of August, all of which is most respectfully submitted by
JAMES TAYLOR,
WM. F. KILPIN,
THOS. J. DRYER,
Pilot Commissioners.

Dicers Oaths

A vote thus [illegible] was [illegible] by the Democrats in the House on Thursday under the leadership of Gov Whiteaker [illegible] the caucus resolutions on which Col Kelly was elected. It soon became evident that notwithstanding their recent vehement protests [illegible] a lingering fondness for the Ladd Pengra route, and a feeling of repugnance to [illegible] in behalf of Southern Oregon which they had maligned Senator Williams for introducing, still inheres in the Democratic [illegible] Members from the eastern counties [illegible] with Gov Whiteaker [illegible] persuaded that the Ladd Pengra scheme which they had previously declared should receive no aid nor countenance till the completion of the Southern Oregon road was assured beyond peradventure was not [illegible] objectionable after all. It was very well to denounce that project while it stood in the way of the election of a Senator but after the Senator was elected where was the use in persisting in their opposition to the scheme which they had contended for so vigorously in the June election? Accordingly they came near passing, on Thursday a resolution in favor of the Pengra route which would have been a virtual restoration of the caucus pledge. The resolution lacked we believe only one vote of going through. It was asserted by Democratic members that the party had been stultified and Col Kelly humiliated by the inconsistent course that had been pursued, and that they should set themselves and the party right upon the matter.

On Friday the subject was brought up again. The Democracy after all they had protested to the contrary, had an attachment for the Ladd Pengra route that they could not suppress. In consequence they passed a resolution asking Congress for a land grant for that route, notwithstanding the fact that they had made their Senator pledge himself to strenuously resist all Congressional aid to the Oregon Branch of the Pacific railroad known as the Pengra route until the Oregon and California railroad is completed, or its completion placed beyond question. It will be seen that their present action practically annuls the caucus pledge. The solemn promises of the clan now legislating at Salem are about as sacred as dicers oaths.

The European Situation

Little reliance is to be placed in the dispatches which state that Russia is intent on immediate war with the North German Confederation that is, if we are to judge from the fact that similar reports have frequently appeared of late, and have all proven to be without foundation. That Russia would act at this juncture, were she governed by an ambitious and warlike Emperor may well be supposed but the present Czar is of a pacific disposition, and Russia of late years has devoted herself to other thoughts and pursuits than those of war. She could now, by prompt action, relieve and save France but the chances that she will do so still seem remote and improbable.

Meanwhile the French are making the best defense they can. Their attitude at this time is truly heroic and must command general admiration, in spite of the fact that they wantonly and causelessly commenced the war. A people struggling under such reverses as have befallen the French must be admired for their heroism, however much their quarrelsome eagerness to provoke the war by which they are suffering may be detested.

As for the works about Paris, there can be no doubt that they are as strong as modern military art can make them. And so long as the French can hold the outer fortresses Paris will encounter few of the horrors of a siege, save those attending a deficiency of provisions. A recent description of the fortifications of the city shows that these works are distant on an average three miles from the outer edge of Paris. Unless by means of covered lines of approach in front of or between these forts—which will be long, difficult and dangerous of construction—the Germans cannot establish batteries closer than four miles from the outskirts of the city proper and probably not as near as that. To accomplish anything at such a distance they must bring forward their heaviest long range guns a work of some time. Paris, therefore, it seems probable, can hold out for some months, unless a scarcity of provisions counsels surrender. But would the present state of public opinion in Europe permit a six months siege of Paris? Will other powers interpose? Whether Russia is yet ready to strike or not, it may be seriously questioned whether a prolongation of the war does not increase the danger to the Germans from foreign intervention.

Nevada Politics

The San Francisco Herald gives an interesting review of the political situation in Nevada. It states that L R Bradley the Democratic nominee for Governor was formerly a resident of San Joaquin county, California. He served one term in the California Legislature from that county and in 1860 was a delegate to the celebrated Charleston Convention. In principle he is a bed rock Democrat, and his rebel proclivities are decided. His opponent is F A Tritle of Storey county, one of Nevada's early settlers. He was a Republican fifteen years ago and will poll the full strength of the party. He is a Pennsylvanian by birth of German extraction. He graduated at the Chambersburg Pa Law School in 1855. For years he managed the affairs of the Belcher Mining Company and was esteemed an able and upright manager. He was afterwards elected to the State Senate, and made an excellent record. For the past three years he has been engaged in the milling business. There is no [illegible] or division in the ranks of the Republicans and it is very probable that the ticket headed by Tritle will be elected.

It begins to look as if all the Herald people would get into jail about that little matter of defaming Senator Fay. The Committee of Inquiry is now granted permission to send for persons and papers. This will probably take the Herald folks suddenly to the Capital, and then if they don't give civil answers the next thing may be an introduction into a damp lock up and no habeas corpuses obtainable.

The Herald yesterday complained that "Senator Kelly was pledged to resist a railroad in Oregon." No doubt it will now be rejoiced to hear that its party in the Legislature has passed a resolution in favor of aiding the railroad that Kelly was pledged to resist. It will gloat over the falsehood of which its party has been guilty. But let us see whether Kelly will sign the renunciation.

A Separate Supreme Court

All [illegible] that Supreme Court [illegible] should be [illegible] the Constitution [illegible] that any [illegible] proper [illegible]. The Constitution provides that when the white population of the State shall amount to two hundred thousand the Legislature may provide for the election of Supreme and Circuit judges in distinct classes. [illegible] the white population of the State is just known officially to be not two hundred [illegible] half that number.

It [illegible] that the judges [illegible] them at all events are overworked [illegible] certain that all of them are underpaid. Their salaries however are fixed by the Constitution [illegible] that instrument gives the Legislature no authority to increase them. Therefore it is difficult [illegible] the present judges [illegible] better paid [illegible] to create a separate Supreme Court. If the Legislature thinks that anything should be done in either of these directions the only way is to propose an amendment to the Constitution. It will be at least ten years before the white population of the State amounts to two hundred thousand and that long those who want a distinct Supreme Court must wait unless they get a constitutional amendment through before that time elapses.

The profound statesman of the [illegible] and [illegible] that a railroad ever was talked of in Oregon. It unsettles the Democratic mind [illegible] and altogether produces about as unfortunate results for the party as common schools and other like instruments of progress.

According to the Democratic action of yesterday the hope of Oregon is in competing lines of railway. But they didn't think so when they adopted that caucus pledge chaining Col Kelly down to a monopoly.

Women at the Polls—The Election in Wyoming

There is great rejoicing here today mingled with wailing and gnashing of teeth. Judge W T Jones the Republican candidate for delegate to Congress is elected by a majority of 100 votes. The Democrats carried the last election by a majority of 1 400 votes. The ladies very generally availed themselves of their newly-acquired right of franchise. Even the fancy women were out to a man. I believe I wrote you in my last that two ladies had been put upon the Republican ticket one for County Clerk and the other for School Superintendent. Alas for the [illegible] of the times! they shared the common fate of their associates. There were found men ungallant enough to run in opposition to them and unchivalrous enough to [illegible] of the victory over them. It was some consolation however to wounded sensitiveness to know that one of the ladies ran a whole length ahead of the other candidates on her own ticket and came within ten votes of her Democratic competitor. That was Mrs Pickett candidate for County Clerk. I suppose that as the Republicans moved upon the enemy they thought they must keep the Pickett in advance.

The ladies with few exceptions were brought to the polls in carriages and omnibuses deposited their ballots and immediately stepped in again and were driven home. One incident of the day is worth relating. The oldest woman—perhaps the oldest person—in Cheyenne 89 years of age went to the polls and voted her first ballot. When she turned to go away three cheers were called for and were given so rousingly that they were heard for several squares. She will be likely to remember her first ballot while she lives.

The ladies didn't all vote one way by any means. Undoubtedly the majority of them voted the Republican ticket, but quite a sprinkling of them voted with the Democrats. It would seem a little ungrateful not to have done so. But both parties had runners out with buggies from morning until sundown gathering up all the ladies and females that could be found.

Of course we did not expect any improprieties on the part of the ladies. And it was at least a fine illustration of that respect and reverence that the men of America have for females that not even a drunken rough was heard to offer an insult. This may have been partly owing to the fact that both parties were courting them. I might make some comment upon the manifest tendency of the thing, however in this its incipiency that does not seem promising but I forbear.

CURRENT NOTES

A new rule has recently been adopted in the Pennsylvania courts in actions for damages against railroad companies. Heretofore defendants might claim that they used due diligence and care to avoid accident and the plaintiff was required to prove there was neglect. The company must if it can prove the contrary whether the accident arises from defects of engines cars or rails or from the acts of employes.

The Justices of the Supreme Court in the Ku Klux cases recently on trial in North Carolina have unanimously decided that a member is responsible for the acts of any other Klan in any other county though he had possessed no knowledge of the act done until after its commission. This decision has thrown great consternation among the Ku Klux and their sympathizers thereabouts and will tend to the complete disruption of this iniquitous conspiracy throughout that State. The testimony discloses the perpetration of the most fiendish outrages on colored and white Republicans for mere political purposes and that the order was 40 000 strong in the State over a year ago.

Commenting upon the letter of Vice President Colfax announcing his intention to retire from politics and public life at the close of his present term of office and to seek retirement and private business the Springfield (Mass) Republican says. That the country will deeply regret this resolve we are sure—that it will hold out tempting [illegible] Mr Colfax to break it is probable but for him personally we can only offer our congratulations that he has made up his mind to free himself from the honorable slavery and gilded shackles of office. If reflection on a past life well spent can insure it he will find all the happiness he expects if he adheres to his present purpose and retires to private life. With his long and honorable experience in public affairs, his influence will be hardly less than in office while it will of course always be exerted as it always has been in the cause of freedom and human progress. We shall miss Mr Colfax in public life for which he is so peculiarly qualified and so richly endowed but we bless him for giving an example [illegible] in this office seeking age of a man high in office with still higher places in the grasp of a reasonable ambition who can perform an act greater than any official achievement voluntarily resign place and prospects and return to a private station.

[illegible] posts yesterday. [illegible] for Salem [illegible] to-morrow where they will [illegible] during the continuance of the State Fair.

[illegible] the steamer's deck on discharging freight.

The woman [illegible] forfeited her bonds of $500 and escaped trial for a recent robbery in this city was returned to her old quarters yesterday by [illegible] of Marion county.

It is the [illegible] of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company to [illegible] on the Astoria route when she is repaired. The [illegible] will be brought through to Portland next year and the [illegible] Dalles.

To-day the [illegible] on Capt Ankeny's block will be put in place. We understand that Messrs [illegible] Reed and [illegible] will build their part of the block next season to correspond with Capt Ankeny's.

An altercation occurred on the streets in Salem Thursday evening between James [illegible] Meara editor of the [illegible] and [illegible] Patterson State Printer. Pistols were drawn but friends interfered and saved perhaps the loss of life.

A little son of Mr Clark narrowly escaped from death by drowning on Thursday abreast of Ross Island. He had been permitted to go out upon the river alone in a skiff which capsized and he was discovered by a passing market boat which came along by chance in the nick of time.

A drover with seventy five or eighty head of cattle from Polk and Linn was belated yesterday morning and failed to connect with the Monticello boat. His stock was kept in pens at the wharf to go forward to-day. They are to be stall fed near Olympia for the Puget Sound markets.

The Nicolson pave sidewalk has been taken up in front of Messrs Ainsworth and Kahn's property on Front street and plank laid instead. The Nicolson street pavement needs considerable attention on [illegible] first laid in Oregon in 18[illegible] Considering the state of the weather which was had when it was laid the pavement has served very well.

A tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men which was instituted last spring in Portland will dedicate their new Wigwam to-morrow evening in the Parrish block. They have a fine hall well furnished and fitted up lighted with gas 68 by 24 feet in size with ante rooms etc. The tribe seems to be in a flourishing condition and if we may be permitted to judge of the merits of its membership by the Chiefs we saw at the Wigwam [illegible] will continue to flourish.

On my return from Washington Territory I learned that a report had obtained quite an extensive circulation to the effect that I offered my services to the Democratic party in the late election to stump the State for them and further, that I had said that I should vote the Democratic ticket. A brief inquiry enabled me to trace the report to the source from whence it sprang. And while I pronounce the report an utter fabrication, I shall withhold the author's [illegible] for the present in hopes that he may repent of the wrong he has done me and if possible with his nature become a truthful man. I have been a firm and unflinching Republican for the last fifteen years lending all my influence to the support of the party and its measures, both with voice and pen. Under the benign influences of that party I have seen the wrongs of this nation righted and an impetus given to the principles of liberty and growth of our Republican that utilizes such as they never received before. Hence I have no reason to change my views.
BENJ TODD

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—For some time past things have [illegible] looked right about the premises at the residence of Sheriff Bills in the First Ward, and yesterday morning at an early hour the Sheriff woke a stranger in the loft of his barn. When Mr Bills asked him as to whom he was or what he wanted the fellow really put on airs and became insolent at which he took a sound drubbing from the man whose premises he had appropriated for a sleeping apartment. Mr Bills, as the public well know is not the man to refuse a favor to the really needy and if this fellow had been worthy he would have found a friend instead of the treatment he received for his arrogant way.

FROM DAYTON.—We learn from Mr A McDonald of Dayton that wheat is coming into that place now very rapidly and the warehouses are all literally filled. Mr Lippencott has sold out his interest in the merchandise trade of Dayton to Col [illegible] Taylor. Col Taylor will continue the business with renewed effort. The [illegible] house of Messrs [illegible] & R[illegible] all came near being set on fire on the evening of the [illegible] by some person who had kindled a fire on a piece of sheet [illegible] the stove. The building was vacant.

A [illegible] Capt Hoyt and Purser Melona of the steamer [illegible] brought to port last evening a fine fat young doe which was captured just above Ground's Wood yard when swimming from the main land to Sand Island. It was very wild and in its thrashings to board [illegible] get away had it not failed the other than this [illegible] was an excellent [illegible] and [illegible] seemed a pity to [illegible] and Capt Hoyt [illegible] what he would do with his prize when we saw him last.

[illegible] Mr Joseph E Lobeck who came out to Oregon and Washington Territory last summer with [illegible] correspond[illegible] for his paper the [illegible] written [illegible] this [illegible] readers [illegible] this country.

U S INTERNAL REVENUE.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Having seen several errors in newspaper publications of the internal revenue laws, as amended July 14th, 1870, I have prepared the following correct synopsis of the amendments, which the public, no doubt, would be pleased to have published.

Very Respectfully,
THOS. FRAZAR, Assessor.

1st. Canned and preserved fish, shell fish, meats, fruits and vegetables, are exempt from stamp duties on and after the passage of the law, (July 14th, 1870.)

2d. On and after the 1st of October, 1870, the stamp tax imposed in Schedule B, on promissory notes for a less sum than one hundred dollars, and on receipts for any sum of money, or for the payment of any debt, are exempt. "And no stamp shall be required upon the transfer or assignment of a mortgage, where it or the instrument it secures has been once duly stamped." The stamps required on Bank checks, Drafts or Orders, Bills of Exchange, Certificates of Deposite, remain as heretofore.

3d. Persons furnishing their own die or design for stamps to be used especially for his or their own proprietary articles named in Schedule C, shall be allowed the following Commissions, viz: On amounts purchased at one time of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, five per centum; and on amounts over five hundred dollars, ten per centum on the whole amount purchased. Provided, That lucifer or friction matches, cigar lights and wax tapers may be removed from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country without payment of tax or affixing stamps thereto, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe.

4th. That on and after the 1st of October, 1870, the several taxes on sales imposed by the internal revenue laws now in force saving and excepting such taxes on sales as are by existing laws paid by stamps, wholesale dealers, wholesale liquor dealers, cattle dealers, cattle brokers, apothecaries, butchers, confectioners, plumbers and gas fitters, sales of leaf tobacco, manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, foreign and domestic distilled spirits and wines, now imposed by existing laws approved July 20, 1868, and acts amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby repealed.

5th. That on and after the 1st Oct., 1870, the taxes now imposed on articles in Schedule A: (carriages, watches, billiard tables kept for private use, gold and silver plate) the special tax on boats, barges, and flats, on legacies, and succession; on passports, and on gross receipts are repealed.

6th. That on and after the 1st May, 1871, all special taxes (licenses) except the special taxes on brewers, distillers, rectifiers, compounders of liquors, wholesale and retail liquor dealers, manufacturers of tobacco, snuff and cigars, are repealed; and with the special taxes that are repealed after the first of May, 1871, is also repealed the tax on monthly sales.

7th. That section 158 (this section relates to instruments in Schedule B, that from some cause were omitted being stamped,) is amended by striking out the words "fifty dollars" in the second proviso, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "double the amount of tax remaining unpaid, but in no case less than five dollars;" also by striking out the words "sixty-six" in the third proviso ("shall within twelve months after the 1st of August, 1866," &c., &c.) and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seventy-one;" also by striking out the words "sixty-seven" in the last proviso ("and the record thereof shall be as valid," &c., &c.) and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seventy-two."

8th. There shall be levied and collected annually, as hereinafter provided, for the years 1870 and 1871, and no longer, a tax of two and one-half per centum upon the gains, profits and income of every person residing in the United States and of every citizen of the United States residing abroad, derived from any source whatever, whether within or without the United States, except as hereinafter provided, and a like tax annually upon the gain, profits and income derived from any business, trade or profession carried on in the United States by any person residing without the United States, and not a citizen thereof, or from rents of real estates within the United States owned by any person residing without the United States, and not a citizen thereof. The other provisions from which incomes are made up are similar to the last law, also the exemptions are the same except now $2,000 is exempt instead of $1,000 as heretofore.

9th. Incomes are made up for the entire year from January 1st to December 31st, inclusive, "and shall be levied and returned to the Assistant Assessor on the first day of March, 1871 and 1872, and be due and payable on or before the 30th day of April in each year."

10th. Oro Fino Theater.—This evening closes the Theater, for the present at least, in the city of Portland. The performances which have been given during the engagement of Miss Hinckley are of a class so excellent that it is indeed strange that every seat has not been occupied, and yet, last evening, at the benefit of this talented artiste, with such a play as "Marble Heart," there was only a fair attendance. We feel that the community should partially repay the obligations they owe Mr. Bates for introducing the finest features of the profession among us, and hope to hear that the Theater is not large enough to hold all who shall seek admission this evening.

Attachments.—A lot of goods were attached on the wharf of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company and prevented from going forward to the mark of J. H. B., Walla Walla, yesterday morning. Sheriff Bills has also attached, and closed for inventory, the store and stock of Robinson & Lake, stove and tinware dealers.

Remittent Fevers, The Way to Escape Them.—A dose of Plantation Bitters, taken night and morning, will enable the system to repel the deleterious influence of those fruitful sources of epidemic disease. It is in evidence that in many instances where the greater portion of the population of an entire settlement have been prostrated by bilious remittent fevers, the few who have had sufficient forecast to take the Bitters as a preventive, have escaped the scourge. As a remedy after an attack has actually commenced, this celebrated tonic and anti-bilious elixir is invariably efficacious. In such cases, if taken when the fever is off, it will soon control the paroxysms, and when the patient is convalescent, it will restore the appetite and recruit the strength more rapidly than any other stomachic and invigorant in use.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. D. R. Turney, late of Oregon, has a letter in the Advocate showing that the people of Illinois are being deluded by the Book of Mormon.

The Looss Creek camp meeting continued for nine days, and Mr Kuykendall writes that the meeting seemed to grow in interest almost every day from the commencement.

J. Quinn Thornton, Esq., is advocating the free church system. He was prompted to take up his pen in this behalf on reading in the Churchman the strong arguments made against pew renting by Bishop Kerfoot, of Pittsburg, in his annual address.

The Advocate gives notice that by agreement of most of the pastors in this city the bells of the churches will be rung at nine o'clock on Sabbath morning from this time. The object is to call attention to the solemnities of public worship in the House of God.

The Advocate has an able leader on "Divine Calls," from which we quote one paragraph "The same spirit should pervade the church to its humblest member. While the minister says, 'Woe is me if I preach not the gospel,' each member should say, 'Woe is me if I do not what I can for God and humanity.'"

The Sunday School Missionary Concert for October will be given by the Taylor Street Methodist Sunday School to-morrow. As usual the public are respectfully invited to be present. The following is the list of exercises for the occasion: 1. Prayer; 2. Singing by the School; 3. Essay, "Missions;" 4. Music; 5. Recitation, "Temperance Missions;" 6. Singing by the School; 7. Dialogue, "Matters and things;" 8. Music; 9. Recitation, "The Ten Church Builders;" 10. Address.

Rev. H. K. Hines has reached his new charge at Klickitat. The trip was one of deep interest to him. He was accompanied by Rev. G. Hines, and as they were both passing over the road for the first time, they mutually entertained each other with exclamations of wonder and surprise. The summit of the mountain stretches of hill and valley and mountain, in every variety of lawn-like beauty and bold rugged grandeur, away to the northward, southward and westward, domed and glorified at vast intervals with Mounts Hood, Adams, St. Helens and Rainier; the roar of the rushing waters of the Columbia down the falls and through the Grand Dalles, joining the sublimity of sound to that of sight; all together formed one of the few scenes that memory selects out of a lifetime of seeing to be treasured up forever.

CATHOLIC INTELLIGENCE.

The Sentinel says: To-morrow being the feast of the Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, there will be no sermon during the evening service, but the Rosary will be recited instead, as also in the morning before High Mass.

Arrangements were made at a meeting, held last Thursday afternoon by the Catholic ladies of this city, to hold a fair for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, the same to take place about the beginning of next December. The fair, we prophecy, will be a complete success, judging from the ardor of the lady managers.

The solemn and beautiful ceremony of investiture of the white veil of Miss Hannah Young, a novice of the Sisters' Convent in this city, and sister of Mrs. John Brady, will take place at the Convent Chapel, in St. Mary's Academy, at eight o'clock next Tuesday morning. The Very Rev. J. F. Fierens, V. G., will officiate.

THE BLACK REPUBLICAN CONTROVERSY.

A Card.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Mr. H. W. Prettyman, of East Portland, boasted through The Oregonian some time ago, of having 1,000 of the best Black Republican Cherry (nursery) Trees in the State of Oregon. Knowing that Seth Luelling, of Milwaukie, was the originator of this new and remarkable variety of trees and that he had never let any of them out for propagation until last spring, and then only to S. W. Brown, of Vancouver, W. T., H. Hanson, of East Portland, and myself, I could not understand how Mr. Prettyman could have the Black Republican at all. But waiving this question, I called on him to make his boast good. Accordingly a committee was chosen to compare Mr. P.'s trees with mine. By accident the committee consisted of two, and no decision was obtained. Knowing that Mr. P.'s statement above alluded to, was without any foundation in fact, and that I had more Black Republican cherry trees, and better ones than any other man in Oregon, or the WORLD for that matter. I called upon him again to refer the matter to a committee which should have the power to decide the question. He consented but has since declined to take any action in the case.

Mr. P.'s conduct in this affair has convinced me, as it did the gentlemen who were present at the examination of the trees by the committee of two, that a decision of the question at issue was the very thing he meant to prevent.

In view of the foregoing facts and considerations, I now ask Mr. Prettyman to refer with me, this question to a disinterested committee, appointed by the Managers of the Oregon State Fair, to be held at Salem October 10th, and let that committee say who has 1,000 of the best Black Republican trees, he or I, and let this decision, whatever it may be, be made public through the papers. This is a fair method of settling this question, and I respectfully invite Mr. Prettyman to the test. Will he do it? I will meet all the expense of the examination by the committee of Mr. Prettyman's trees and mine.

HOUSE—Morning Session

SALEM, Friday, Sept. 30, 1870.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M. by the Speaker, all the members being present except Mr. Carson.

The Journal was read and approved.

RAILROADS.

The House proceeded to consider Senate joint resolution No. 71, designating the Jacksonville company to receive the subsidies for the railroad from the Humboldt to the Rogue river valley, and the substitute offered by Mr. Whiteaker asking for a subsidy for a railroad from McMinnville by Eugene City to the C. P. R. R. on the Humboldt.

Mr. Hare offered to amend the original resolution by adding a clause instructing our Senators and requesting our Representative to procure an amendment to the act of April, 1870, so as to extend the grant to Eugene City.

Mr. Hare—I move this amendment for the reason [illegible] City. It also gives Eastern Oregon a railroad by the [illegible] should be a road built down the Columbia [illegible] Willamette valley. I am willing to vote for the resolution offered as a substitute, as a separate proposition.

Mr. Whiteaker withdrew his substitute and Mr. Hare's amendment was adopted.

Mr. Dorris offered an amendment to secure a grant for a road over the Pengra route.

Mr. Lockhart thought the proposition intended to neutralize the grant for the Humboldt-Rogue River route.

Mr. Dorris disclaimed any such intention. He offered the proposition in the interest of the whole State. He deemed it necessary to have the Middle Fork road built, in order to prevent a monopoly.

Mr. Hare opposed the amendment. He believed a grant for a road over the Pengra or Sage Brush route could defeat the road for Eastern Oregon.

Mr. Whaley referred to the action of the Democratic caucus in pledging Senator Kelly to support the Williams amendment, and to oppose all others until that should be secured, and asked if a resolution instructing him to labor for a grant upon a road route would not be [illegible] Senator Kelly to stultify himself. It had been [illegible] that the Eugene Humboldt route was [illegible] should remember that the rights [illegible] hands of the greatest [illegible] Oregon needs a road, and [illegible] boldt to Eugene City [illegible] to build from the Union Pacific road through Eastern Oregon to Portland.

Mr. O'Regan hoped Mr. Dorris would have leave to withdraw his amendment. [illegible]

Mr. Dorris insisted that it was a mistake to suppose that the amendment was designed to defeat the resolution. He admitted [illegible]

Mr. Amis—[illegible] lation to bar any further railroad business during this session. I sometimes think, Mr. Speaker, that it is almost to be regretted that there has ever been a railroad among us, because the subject has caused so much contention.

Mr. Dorris' amendment was rejected—4 ayes to [illegible] noes—Messrs. Dorris, Olney, Porter and Whiteaker voting aye.

Mr. Alexander offered an amendment to strike out all after [illegible] grants as Congress may make in aid of the [illegible] railways and telegraphs [illegible] near the north bend of the Humboldt to a point on the O. & C. R. R. on Rogue River.

Mr. [illegible]—The original resolution says the company [illegible]

Mr. Hare—I hope the amendment will be made. I hope the friends of the resolution will not support it. He was afraid it might endanger the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Helm thought the amendment could not be reasonably objected to by any friends of the resolution. He had supposed the gentleman were [illegible], and could see no reason why any one should be so scared at the amendment.

Mr. Davenport thought the distinction a technical one, and could see no reason for bothering the heads of members over the difference between tweedledee and tweedledum. [Laughter.]

Mr. Amis explained that the Humboldt-Eugene route and the Humboldt Rogue River route would run [illegible] miles over the same ground. If [illegible] the land grants were [illegible] to the latter road, it would prevent the building of the former. He was in favor of leaving the matter of designating the company to Congress.

Mr. Lockhart believed the amendment was offered for the purpose of freeing Senator Kelly from the caucus pledge. He hoped it would not prevail.

Mr. Alexander disclaimed such an object.

The amendment was rejected by 18 ayes to 29 noes.

The original resolution was then adopted by 41 ayes to 1 vote in the negative, Mr. Dorris alone voting against the resolution.

THE HUMBOLDT EUGENE ROUTE.

Mr. Whiteaker moved the adoption of H. J. R. 15, asking for a subsidy for a railroad from McMinnville, on the west side of the Wallamet, by way of Eugene City, to the Central Pacific Railroad. He argued that the road would neither interfere with the Western Oregon Railroad to Portland down the Columbia, nor with the Oregon and California Railroad through Southern Oregon, nor with the Humboldt-Rogue river route. He was in favor of a complete railroad system for the State and would be ashamed to support any proposition to benefit one portion of the State at the expense of another. He regarded the Pengra route as necessary to save the State from falling into the hands of a railroad monopoly. It is necessary to have competing lines southward, and the only way in which that object can be secured is by adopting the measure proposed. He had offered his present resolution as a substitute for the Senate resolution, because he believed he could not get it through the Senate unless he could link it with the Senate resolution in some way or other. After testing the sense of the House he had withdrawn the resolution, and now wished it to come up as a distinct proposition.

The resolution was adopted with but five dissenting votes, Messrs. Dunbar, Davenport, O'Regan, Stack[illegible] and Whaley.

At 12 o'clock the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House met at 2 o'clock P. M., the Speaker in the Chair.

THE CUE BILL.

H. B. 3, an Act to discourage cues was taken up.

Mr. Amis—In order to aid the gentlemen who are afraid of the provision relative to long hair, I move to amend the bill by striking out the words "of a greater length than six inches." The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Hare—Section 3 of this bill renders every person who violates the first section of the bill subject to a sentence of ten days' labor upon the public roads, that is labor at the rate of one dollar a day. But the same section provides that the Supervisor who makes the offender work shall have but seventy-five cents a day. Now I am opposed to such a discrimination against the white race and I move to amend so as to allow the Supervisor one dollar and a half per day. [Laughter.]

The Speaker refused to entertain the motion, because not offered in the proper form.

The Speaker refused to entertain the motion for the same reason as before.

Mr. Amis—I move the previous question.

The Speaker—There is no question here. [Laughter.]

Mr. Whiteaker—I trust the bill will be treated with the consideration it deserves. It is a matter of importance, and should not be treated lightly. There is one thing here that seems to need some modification. I was going to say that I would offer to amend, I see a necessity for preventing any portion of the scalp from being shaved. Now, when I put my hand here (feeling of the top of his head) I find that there is not much hair there. It would be hard to tell whether it had been shaved or not; and I look around me and see a number of members who might be indicted under this provision of the bill, unless it is somewhat modified. [Laughter.] Now I think the bill ought to except scalps that are naturally bare from its operation. I say again, in all candor, too, that I should like to know whether I would come under the provision, that prohibits one portion of the scalp from being shaved. I would like to have that matter settled. If the author of the bill can show me how we are to avoid having it affect our scalps in this respect, I will support the measure, and I think I will do it anyhow.

The Speaker—The Chair is of the opinion that the bill intends to except present company. [Laughter.]

Mr. Amis was willing to accept an amendment to affect the object proposed, but did not like to see the bill ridiculed. He wished it to be met upon its merits.

Mr. Hare—I move that the bill be ordered engrossed, and read a third time to-morrow.

Mr. Olney—I wish the gentleman would withdraw that motion a moment.

Mr. Hare—The motion is withdrawn.

Mr. Olney—I have an amendment to this bill. Add at the end of the first section these words: "But this act shall not apply to the hair on the chin or other parts of the body." [Laughter.]

The Speaker—The amendment does not mention the number of the bill; it is out of order.

Mr. Apperson—I move to amend by striking out the word "male" from the first line of the first section of the printed bill.

Mr. Amis—I arise to a point of order. This very amendment was considered when the bill was before the House some time ago.

Mr. Lockhart—I call the gentleman to order. That was when the bill was not before the House. [Laughter.]

Mr. Apperson—I at that time favored the amendment. I am earnestly in favor of it now, and just as earnest as [illegible] the author of the bill [illegible] I do not wish to discriminate between males and females, and especially when it comes to the Chinese female and males, and while my wife has a little [illegible] I am perfectly willing to pay the $10 a month license if she comes within the provisions of this bill, and if she deems it of sufficient importance that she should wear it long. [Laughter.]

Mr. Porter—I would just suggest an idea to the House of this kind, that these little amendments all take up time, and they do no good. I think we had better stop such amendments or kill the bill in the right way or let it become a law.

Mr. Dorris—I will ask to be excused from voting upon this proposition. It is a rule that a member should not vote where he is interested. As this bill affects my wife's hair, I wish to be excused from voting. [Laughter.]

The amendment was adopted—41 ayes; 5 noes.

The Speaker—Right here let me suggest that we are trifling with the people's money, and that some disposition ought to be made of this bill.

Mr. Olney renewed his amendment to except the hair on the chin and other parts of the body.

Mr. Olney—I will occupy only a minute. I offer this amendment in the interest of the bill and in the expectation that it will meet with the approval of the author of the bill. If, after hearing my reason for it, he shall not think well of the amendment, and the House rejects it, I will still vote with him. It is my purpose to vote with him upon this bill. It may be that some modifications are necessary. It has been frequently remarked that this legislation is not for ourselves, but for other folks; that we do not, like as I fear that some of the provisions of this bill, if not changed, might operate oppressively upon some of our own people. I would like to see it so modified as to be unobjectionable. It seems to me to be quite enough for our sheriffs to do, especially our Democratic sheriffs, to go peeping around Chinese houses, hunting for Chinese cues, without going further and requiring them to go into unseemly places to search for unlawful hair. [Laughter.] Then, again, in regard to the hair on the chin. It is a well-known fact, open to the observation of all, that many of us wear hair upon the chin longer than six inches. I believe this is the case with the ex-Governor recently in office, also with an ex-Member of Congress, Mr. Mallory, also with a still more ancient ex-Governor, Governor Curry, and in looking around I see some members of this body whose chins are ornamented with hair longer than six inches. Now it would be humiliating to [illegible] our venerable ex-Governor, with his great long face [illegible] highway because he does not [illegible] chin or pay ten dollars a month [illegible] I hope this [illegible] body will take [illegible] I think that [illegible] this measure they will [illegible] been repeatedly remarked that [illegible] different kind of folks from ourselves [illegible] that you do not [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] urged that the bill be met upon its merits.

Mr. Amis—I move that in order to facilitate business we consider the bill engrossed, read a third time and consider it upon its passage.

The Speaker—The Chair thanks the motion [illegible]

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down like extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, billious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

The Losses and the Gains of France

[From the New York Herald]

If the losses of France by the war have been heavy and disastrous her gains have been and will be great and enduring. She has lost, perhaps, of her army in killed wounded prisoners and from disease in this war two hundred and fifty thousand men she has lost the military prestige under the second empire which she gained under the first she has lost with the empire the position which she held even by Napoleon III while the empire was peace the proud position of arbiter of the Continent she has in two months from the ravages of this war with her fairest departments lost in the destruction of her crops live stock supplies of all kinds, internal improvements & an amount of material wealth which in those suffering departments, it will take ten years of industry and economy to restore It is expected that she will have to foot the bill to the extent of five or six hundred millions of dollars as indemnity to Prussia and her German allies for their expenses in this causeless war declared and commenced against them and lastly France, instead of securing an extension may have to consent to a shortening or disarmament of her Rhine frontier as security to her German neighbors for the future

Such are the expenses which have resulted or will result to France from this terrible war of her own making but her gains we believe will amply compensate her for all these losses She loses the empire, but she regains the republic, and in regaining it without bloodshed and without crime she commands from the outset the admiration of all other republics, and the respect even of her monarchical enemies This is an encouraging beginning, and strongly justifies the opinion that the French republic henceforward will be free from the vicious and ruinous excesses which converted the revolution of 1689 into a Reign of Terror and diabolisms and free from the follies and imbecilities of the revolution of 1848 which invited the coup d'etat of Louis Napoleon We have no fear that the French republic of 1870 will revive the guillotine for the extermination of the aristocracy or set up again the Goddess of Reason in mockery of Christianity Nor do we apprehend that the third republic, like the first, will send out its armies, right and left, "to run a muck for "liberty, equality and fraternity or that, like the empire, it will undertake again for France the dangerous office of regulating the boundaries of other States or the line of succession to its neighbors.

We expect that France as a Republic will come out of this war purified like gold from the crucible We believe that the dearly bought lessons of their experience under the Bourbons, the Robespierres the Lamartines and the Bonapartes have taught the French people a series of wholesome lessons—against the extremes of despotism on the one hand and of anarchy and sentimentalism and communism on the other—which will be turned to a good account. We expect that the public mind of France, from the wholesome lessons of this war, will be turned from the barbarous vanities of bloodshed and military glory to the loftier achievements and enterprises of art and science in the way of peace We entertain the hope that after this sanguinary war a new reign of peace will dawn upon the earth, and France as a Republic, under this new dispensation, there is the promise of a career of prosperity and glory which will throw into the shade, as among the crimes upon humanity of an age of barbarism, all the bloody achievements of the past, from the greatest of the Bourbons to the last of the Bonapartes

We have assumed that the Republic will be maintained But is this thing certain? We cannot tell. The issue is mainly in the hands of the King of Prussia, and he is not a republican nor a believer in French republics But come what may, we still hold to the conclusion that the losses of France from this war will be but a bagatelle compared with her solid gains in her new career of experience and wisdom.

Victor Hugo and His Views

The London correspondent of the Herald transmits by cable a somewhat stilted account of an interview which he held day before yesterday with Victor Hugo. We give the least objectionable part of the correspondent's statement as follows

"Since you saw me last," said M. Hugo, "the snows of many winters have whitened my head, but neither time nor the pains of exile have deadened my heart to the sense of desolation which fills it to-day at the sight of the [illegible] misfortunes which have fallen on this unhappy land—on France, my country! My grief is of too poignant a character to be uttered in words. I cannot convey to you what I feel at these sad results of the work of that one man, who is now expiating his crimes against the country by his downfall and captivity. But why, sir, should not the conqueror be now satisfied? Why is he not satiated with the blood of so many victims—blood which has been shed and already sacrificed to an unholy ambition? Why should King William of Prussia, who at the commencement of the struggle solemnly declared that he warred not on the people of France but Bonaparte be content—content now that his crowned antagonist has been stricken down from his imperial eminence and disappeared personally from the scene of strife? The fall of Bonaparte, sir, permits me and mine—my family and friends—to return to this city of my home, after nineteen years of exile. Why shall we now be slaughtered on the very hearth for what we have pined for so long, and for the only reason that because Prussia has had her anger provoked by the deeds of a public criminal whom the justice of the Providence of God has at length overtaken It will be an eternal disgrace to the name and honor of King William of Prussia if he refuses to sheath the bloody sword now that the exciting cause which caused him to draw it against France is gone, has been obliterated The people of Germany, sir, are [illegible] as they are courageous. Their king mistakes, sir, I assure you, he mistakes the sentiment of the [illegible] people if he supposes that it is their wish to prolong a frightful butchery of human life by war; a butchery which tends to degrade the nation over which he [illegible] degrades a people who have been dragged into the conflict by Bonaparte not of their own free will

"The appeal," continued M Hugo which I [illegible] addressed to all Christian Germans was made merely in response to many solicitations which I had previously received from almost every quarter and part of Fatherland requesting me to raise my humble voice against the barbarity of war between two such nations. Thank God, my appeal has been heard, for to-day, this day sir I have a letter which comes direct from the headquarters camp of King William of Prussia signed by ten thousand men in arms, in which they say that they shrink from further slaughter

"Will not the United States of America the home of so many Germans and of so many French—will not the citizens of that glorious Union—even if its government refuses to do so—make one grand Christian effort to extinguish the horrid flaming lurid torch of war? Will not the elder sister of our young French Republic stretch forth her hand in remonstrance at the awful calamities which threaten us here in Paris? I appeal then to them in my own humble name May Heaven vouchsafe that the accents of anguish in which I speak may reach their hearts and so incline the American people to protest in the name of reason and in the name of humanity, against a further waste of human life, against the sacrifice of a people at the command of a King, a command which is inflicting death on an unoffending and brother people?

The New York World which represents the Democratic spirit but not the genuine impulse wants to know why Republicans should bestow their sympathies specially on the Germans in the present European war The American people as a whole and particularly the Republicans find no difficulty whatever in seeing precisely on what grounds the Americans should bestow their sympathies specially on the Germans in the present European war' The fact that the Germans have uniformly sympathised with Americans that they were faithful to the National cause during our war, that they enlisted under our flag and contributed to our treasury that they have shown a devotion to the cause of liberty that they are now waging a war of self defense forced upon them by an unscrupulous marplot—all these constitute overwhelming reasons why Americans should bestow their sympathies specially on the Germans

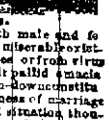
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this [illegible] situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most virulent cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be the afflicted make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

[illegible] the sad and [illegible] consequences of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes [illegible] producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noises like the rustling of [illegible] weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating his disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will convince satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give each patient a written [illegible] to effect a radical and permanent cure no charge

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE APPLICATIONS to their Stock

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES before the books were opened, and [illegible] Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan [illegible] the Association the location of the land [illegible]

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

This association of whose [illegible] an account a few days since, is [illegible] pose of shares. As it is with one [illegible] Portland Homestead Association, [illegible] ganization of that kind in this city, [illegible] well enough to state what are [illegible] the manner in which it is [illegible] operations. The purposes of these [illegible] Associations are not at all [illegible] dinary sense of the word. [illegible] for the profits of their invest[illegible] ral advance in the value of [illegible] quent upon the co-operation of [illegible] —shareholders—and the adv[illegible] surrounding lands by reason of [illegible] population and demand for [illegible] still near, the city The Ri[illegible] Association has a fraction [illegible] twenty acres of land [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the [illegible] est boundary line being about [illegible] ferry landing at East Portland [illegible] in one strip along the Willamette [illegible] in length, and another strip along [illegible] California railroad, half a mile [illegible] strips being connected [illegible] rows of blocks (with a street [illegible] whole forming a figure [illegible] It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 [illegible] streets running at right angles [illegible] al lots, along the river front. [illegible] ber 600, worth $60 per share [illegible] a share thus represents [illegible] vided interest in the 50 [illegible] tional shares are to be sold [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the [illegible] number of shares [illegible] taken and the [illegible] mine to do it, the shares [illegible] will be put up at [illegible] bidder the proceeds of such sales [illegible] the original price of shares [illegible] equally among the whole [illegible] Thus, if a person wants a [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 [illegible] or less as the case may be [illegible] the lot or block at his [illegible] premium being divided [illegible] of shareholders It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative [illegible] tus] No man can make [illegible] out also making a dollar for [illegible] shareholder There is no [illegible] the property, by some chance [illegible] far below the first actual [illegible] liable to happen in the [illegible] tract of land must be judged [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this [illegible] hood and at East Portland [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] values to go back

In the Riverside Association [illegible] tions seem to have been taken [illegible] monopolies of shares. No [illegible] buy more than the number of [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four [illegible] termining the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same way [illegible] shares may pay down $50 per [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other) an assessment of $3 per [illegible] payment of the shares in full [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled [illegible] and his proportion of all the [illegible] all sources. No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month, so it will [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level [illegible] above the water There is [illegible] row of blocks but one [illegible] Portland and the river for [illegible] stream That part of the tract [illegible] railroad is, every foot of it [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening [illegible] tiful little stream of pure [illegible] almost the entire length of [illegible] affording the means of irrigation [illegible] ficient to supply pure water [illegible] whole tract There is not a [illegible] lot in the entire tract Under [illegible] tages it would seem impossible [illegible] be any chance of loss to [illegible] year each shareholder, if he [illegible] perfect title to as many lots [illegible] represent or he may [illegible] vided with the Association [illegible] tion may exist —Oregonian

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

We have been led to make these [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all [illegible]

Riverside just south of East Portland [illegible] been established The site [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one side of [illegible] in length borders on the river

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, [illegible] sive view of Portland East Portland, the [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles [illegible] for ile and is partly covered with [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for [illegible] with an avenue between them, of the H (which has already been [illegible] the east This last tract of land is [illegible] valley which is now under a high state [illegible] Through its whole length runs a [illegible] which is clear as crystal With a [illegible] Association proposes to have water [illegible] pipes to every portion of the [illegible]
